ABOUT THE CREATOR

Hi, my name is Jerry White. I grew up in Rex, Georgia. I am a husband to my beautiful wife of 12 years and a father to a creative, smart and adventurous daughter. Through the establishment of SIRenityToday, my primary mission centers on cultivating the mental well-being of black men. I commit myself to vulnerability by sharing personal narratives and curate content that encompasses positive news, discussions on health, love, and lifestyle. My aspiration is to foster a global community of support, uniting both men and women on a collective journey toward well-being.
